

Weekday Groups for Men and Women

The Gospel of Mark

- What: Join Pastor Andy and friends as they walk through the story of Jesus through the eyes of Mark, the companion of Paul and Peter, who lived in the first century. As we open the pages of this Gospel, we will encounter a Jesus who is highly misunderstood by most, but loved by those whom you would least expect. As we journey to the cross and resurrection, we will see Jesus in new and clearer ways as we seek to follow him. This study doesn't have a particular ending point as it will end when we finish the last verse of Mark. The group goes on many rabbit trails and engages in cultural exploration to discover the nuances of the Scriptures!
- When: Tuesdays ~ 12:00-1:00pm
- Where: LHUMC A117
- Led by Andy Roberts
- Cost: None

The Book of Revelation

- What: The book of Revelation is full of strange, lurid, and sometimes bizarre and violent imagery. Despite these interpretive challenges, Revelation offers one of the clearest visions of God's ultimate purpose for the whole creation, and of the victory of God's kingdom over the forces of evil through God's chosen people. This 8-week study will explore the most misunderstood and provocative book in the New Testament, and challenge us to envision the Kingdom of God coming in all its glory and power.
- When: Tuesdays, September 3 - November 5 ~ 7:00-8:00pm
- Where: LHUMC A117
- Led by: Colton Castle
- Cost: None

Practicing the Way

- What: Two thousand years ago, Jesus said to his disciples, “follow me.” But what does it mean for us to follow Jesus today? The Practicing the Way Course features eight sessions of teaching, guided conversation, and spiritual exercises designed to lay a foundation for lifelong, daily apprenticeship to Jesus. We’ll explore how to follow Jesus in our busy and distracted culture.
